

Jennie Kim Shines in Chic Monochrome Look at Chanel's PFW

Published on 07 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Jennie arrived at the Chanel Spring/Summer 2026 show in Paris, and as expected, she turned heads. According to fan reports, she opted for a strapped top paired with a matching skirt — a bold yet elegant choice for the show's front row.

To break the tonal monotony, she added a lemon yellow shoulder bag as a pop of color. Therefore her hair was left down, styled simply, and her makeup smoky, giving the look a slightly edgy.

Fans were effusive in their praise, with many describing her as “dead gorgeous” and styling “fitted Chanel effortlessly.”

Style Breakdown: What Stood Out

1. Monochrome base with a twist

Jennie's choice of a strapped top + skirt in matching tones gave her outfit cohesion. It felt intentional — mixing structure with softness. Finally the monochrome base allowed her accessory choice to shine.

2. Accent pop: yellow bag

The lemon-yellow bag was smart — subtle enough not to overpower, yet bold enough to catch the eye. After all it broke the monochrome silence and gave the outfit a fresh note.

3. Hair & Makeup: Soft with edge

Firstly keeping her hair loose and natural, she balanced the structured outfit. Secondly, smoky eye added drama without overwhelming the look. It was a good harmony of elegance + personality.

4. Presence and aura

More than just clothes, Jennie delivered an aura. Overall her posture, her confidence, and how she carried herself made the outfit feel fully her own.

How This Fits Her Chanel Legacy

Jennie being associated with Chanel. Her reference as “Human Chanel” by fans for how naturally she embodies the brand's codes.

In the past, she's experimented boldly — from platinum blonde hair to avant-garde statement pieces — and those moments created fashion ripples. This season, her look was more subdued but no less impactful. Thus it shows maturity: she doesn't always need over-the-top drama to make a statement.

Also, the new collection’s mood (silky separates, graphic neutrals, sharp contrasts) aligns with her outfit’s balance of soft + structured.
