

Sushmita Sen as Showstopper at Bombay Times Fashion Week

Published on 07 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Sushmita Sen captivated the audience at Bombay Times Fashion Week 2025, gracing the runway as the showstopper for designer Sonali Jain's 'Devi' collection. Dressed in a dramatic black and gold ensemble, she walked with unmatched confidence and poise, leaving a lasting impression on attendees.

The Outfit That Turned Heads

Sen wore a richly embellished black choli paired with a matching lehenga, both adorned with intricate golden embroidery. The contrast of black and gold gave her ensemble a royal and sophisticated vibe. She accessorized with a statement necklace, skipping earrings to keep the focus on her neckline and outfit's craftsmanship.

Social Media Buzz

Videos and photos of Sen's showstopper walk quickly went viral across social media platforms. Fashion critics and fans alike applauded her for bringing elegance and confidence to the stage. Many called her the "queen of the ramp" and praised the way she carried herself effortlessly.

On the Work Front

Sen has been busy with her acting projects as well. She recently appeared in the thriller series Aarya, whose third season released in two parts, the latest being in February 2024.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com