At the Zimmermann Spring 2026 show during Paris Fashion Week, Lana Del Rey made a notable departure from her usual ethereal dresses, opting instead for a chic cargo pants ensemble. The outfit featured high-rise, wide-leg khaki cargo pants adorned with nautical-inspired buttons and pockets, reflecting the Australian brand's Resort 2026 collection.

Styling Details

Del Rey paired the cargos with an oversized red-and-white striped blouse, reminiscent of a sailor's uniform. The blouse, with its high neck and billowy sleeves, was tucked into the pants to highlight their double-buttoned waistline. Stylist Molly Dickson accessorized the look with Zimmermann's Halcyon Clutch, a $1,450 brown purse featuring a cinched, bucket-style closure. She completed the ensemble with Zimmermann's Eddie Low Boots and Cosmo Hexagon sunglasses, maintaining a cohesive head-to-toe Zimmermann appearance.

Lana Del Rey's appearance at Zimmermann's Spring 2026 show showcased her versatility and fashion-forward approach, embracing the cargo pants trend with a nautical twist. Her ensemble not only highlighted the resurgence of cargo pants in high fashion but also demonstrated her ability to blend classic elements with contemporary style.
