

BLACKPINK's Jisoo and Zayn Malik new Collaboration on “Eyes Closed”

Published on 08 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

BLACKPINK's Jisoo has officially confirmed her upcoming duet single, “Eyes Closed”, featuring former One Direction star Zayn Malik. The track is scheduled to release on October 10, 2025, sparking excitement among fans worldwide. This collaboration marks a significant moment, bringing together a K-pop powerhouse and a global R&B artist.

Teasers Spark Fan Frenzy

Earlier, Jisoo hinted at the collaboration through a cryptic social media teaser. The post featured a silhouette of a man standing behind her, immediately igniting speculation among fans. Naturally, media outlets picked up on the teaser, and fans began theorizing about Zayn Malik's involvement. Eventually, both artists confirmed the collaboration, ending weeks of suspense.

A Unique Fusion of Styles

Eyes Closed promises to blend Jisoo's K-pop influence with Zayn's R&B style, offering a fresh cross-genre sound. While the exact musical details remain under wraps, early buzz suggests a harmonious fusion of vocals and emotive storytelling. Given the individual fanbases of both artists, the collaboration is expected to generate massive global attention.

Anticipation Across Fan Communities

Fans of BLACKPINK, known as BLINKS, and Zayn Malik's followers are already sharing their excitement online. Many have called it a “dream collab”, anticipating the unique blend of styles. The timing of the release also adds to the hype, coinciding with fall 2025, a season that often sees major music releases.

Where to Listen

Eyes Closed will be available on all major streaming platforms, including Spotify, Apple Music, and YouTube. Fans can set reminders for October 10, 2025, to experience the first full release of this collaboration. Additionally, social media will feature promotional content, including teasers, behind-the-scenes clips, and interactive campaigns to engage fans worldwide.
