

Varun Dhawan and Janhvi Kapoor Steal the Show at Bombay Times Fashion Week 2025

Published on 08 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the Bombay Times Fashion Week 2025, held in Mumbai, Bollywood's beloved stars Varun Dhawan and Janhvi Kapoor turned heads as they graced the runway as showstoppers for renowned designers.

Varun Dhawan's Dapper Appearance

Varun Dhawan exuded charm in a custom-tailored metallic jacket paired with sleek black trousers, walking for the celebrated designer duo Falguni Shane Peacock. His confident strut and magnetic stage presence drew loud cheers from the audience.

Janhvi Kapoor's Ethereal Elegance

Janhvi Kapoor stunned in an ethereal silver gown encrusted with crystals and feathers—a signature FSP creation. Her voluminous waves and minimal jewelry allowed the ensemble's shimmer to take center stage.

A Night of Glamour and Purpose

Theme: "India in Bloom"

The 2025 edition of the fashion week carried the theme "India in Bloom," spotlighting sustainability and craftsmanship. Designers fused traditional handwork with contemporary silhouettes, reinforcing India's evolving position in global fashion.

Celebrity Presence

The front row sparkled with celebrity appearances—Kiara Advani, Vicky Kaushal, Kriti Sanon, and Sobhita Dhulipala were among the stars who attended. The event concluded with a spectacular finale where Bollywood's leading designers took the stage alongside their muses.

The Bombay Times Fashion Week 2025 wasn't just a showcase of couture—it was a testament to how Bollywood and fashion continue to inspire each other. With Varun Dhawan and Janhvi Kapoor as showstoppers, the night blended star power and style into one unforgettable fashion moment.
