

Sonam Bajwa's Olive-Yellow Farshi Salwar Look

Published on 08 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Punjabi actress Sonam Bajwa recently showcased a stunning traditional look that perfectly embodies the spirit of autumn. She donned an olive-yellow farshi salwar set, blending rich earthy tones with intricate craftsmanship. The ensemble featured a flowing silhouette, capturing the season's essence with its warm hues and detailed embroidery.

The Farshi Salwar: A Traditional Revival

The farshi salwar, characterized by its wide-legged, flared trousers, is a classic garment that has seen a resurgence in contemporary fashion. Sonam's choice to wear this traditional piece highlights the growing appreciation for cultural heritage in modern attire. Paired with a matching kurta and dupatta, the outfit exuded timeless elegance.

Styling Details

- Color Palette: The olive-yellow combination offered a refreshing take on autumnal shades, moving away from the typical browns and oranges.
- Fabric Choice: The lightweight material ensured comfort while maintaining the outfit's regal appearance.
- Accessories: Sonam complemented her look with minimalistic jewelry, allowing the outfit's details to shine.

Capturing the Moment

In a series of photographs, Sonam posed gracefully, her attire flowing elegantly around her. The backdrop, featuring soft lighting and subtle decor, accentuated the richness of her outfit. Her expressions conveyed a deep connection to the ensemble, making the photoshoot a visual treat for fashion enthusiasts.

Sonam Bajwa's olive-yellow farshi salwar look is a testament to the timeless appeal of traditional garments. By embracing and modernizing cultural attire, she not only pays homage to her roots but also sets a trend for others to follow. This ensemble serves as an inspiration for those looking to blend heritage with contemporary style.
