

Kanika Kapoor Turns Heads in Black Mini Skirt at Chanel SS26 Show

Published on 08 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood singer Kanika Kapoor recently graced the streets of Paris in a stunning black mini skirt ensemble, attending the Chanel Spring/Summer 2026 show at Paris Fashion Week. At 43, and a mother of three, Kanika's appearance turned heads, proving that age is just a number when it comes to style.

The Ensemble: Classic Meets Contemporary

Kanika's outfit featured a black mini skirt paired with a chic black jacket adorned with the iconic Chanel logo. She accessorized with a quilted Chanel handbag and a string of pearls, adding a touch of sophistication to her look. Her ensemble was a perfect blend of classic Chanel elements with a modern twist, embodying the timeless elegance the brand is known for.

Beauty and Styling: Effortless Elegance

Complementing her outfit, Kanika opted for a natural makeup look that highlighted her features, exuding effortless elegance. Her hair style was in soft waves, adding to the overall chic aesthetic. This understated beauty approach allowed her ensemble to take center stage, showcasing her impeccable fashion sense.

Capturing the Moment

Photographs from the event showcased Kanika confidently strutting the streets of Paris, her outfit capturing the essence of high fashion. The images highlighted the intricate details of her ensemble, from the tailored fit of her jacket to the delicate pearls adorning her neck, encapsulating a moment of pure glamour.

Kanika Kapoor's appearance at Paris Fashion Week was a testament to her evolving fashion journey. Her ability to blend classic elements with contemporary style not only showcased her personal growth. As she continues to make waves in the fashion industry, Kanika proves that style knows no age.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com