

Sydney Sweeney Brings Ballet-Inspired Elegance in Vintage Mugler

Published on 08 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the 2025 Hamptons International Film Festival, Sydney Sweeney captivated attendees with her ethereal appearance, celebrating her Achievement in Acting award for her role in Christy. Departing from her portrayal of a boxer, Sweeney embraced a delicate, ballerina-inspired look, showcasing her versatility both on and off-screen.

A Nod to '90s Couture: The Mugler Ensemble

For the occasion, Sweeney selected an archival Thierry Mugler tutu dress from the '90s, curated by her stylist Molly Dickson. The ensemble featured a cropped, tailored jacket with curly lapels over a matching mini dress. The dress boasted a plunging neckline, a basque waist bustier, and a sheer, structured tutu adorned with white bows at the hips. To complete the look, she layered a matching miniskirt underneath and paired the outfit with pointed-toe Jimmy Choo heels.

From Heels to Sneakers: A Stylish Switch

After the red carpet, Sweeney opted for comfort without compromising style, swapping her heels for white sneakers—a spontaneous choice she made herself. This playful transition added a modern twist to her vintage ensemble, demonstrating her fashion versatility.

A Fashion Statement Beyond the Festival

Sweeney's choice to wear a vintage Mugler dress not only honored the designer's legacy but also highlighted her appreciation. Her appearance at the Hamptons International Film Festival reinforced her status as a fashion icon couture with contemporary trends.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com