

Sanya Malhotra's Golden Goddess Moment: A Saree to Remember

Published on 08 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Sanya Malhotra recently captivated fashion enthusiasts with her radiant appearance in a golden saree, embodying goddess energy. Her ensemble, featuring a hand-embroidered bandeau blouse and tulle applique saree, showcased intricate craftsmanship and a modern twist on traditional attire.

The Ensemble: Golden Elegance

The saree, designed by Aikeyah, featured a tulle base adorned with gold glass beads, creating a shimmering effect. The bandeau blouse, intricately embroidered with gold florals, complemented the saree's delicate design. Sanya draped the six yards uniquely, taking the pallu over her right shoulder, adding a contemporary flair to the classic drape.

Accessories and Styling

To complete her look, Sanya accessorized with diamond-shaped gold earrings and a dainty choker, enhancing the ensemble's elegance. Her hair was styled in a half-up, half-down manner, and she opted for minimal makeup, allowing the outfit to take center stage.

Perfect for the Festive Season

This golden saree is an ideal choice for the upcoming festive season, offering a blend of traditional charm and modern sophistication. Its intricate design and shimmering details make it a standout piece for any celebration.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com