

Aneet Padda Graces Cosmopolitan India's Cover

Published on 08 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Aneet Padda, the breakout star of the romantic hit Saiyaara, has been featured on the cover of Cosmopolitan India's latest edition. The issue celebrates Gen Z's influence on the entertainment industry, and Aneet embodies this spirit with her radiant presence. The cover headline, "Imagine Aneet," encapsulates her journey from aspiring actress to national sensation.

Behind the Lens: A Glamorous Photoshoot

The photoshoot, conducted at The Kin Hotel, showcases Aneet in a shimmering gold dress, exuding confidence and elegance. Photographer Taras84, along with stylist Divya K Dsouza and makeup artist Mehak Oberoi, captured Aneet's transformation into a fashion icon. Creative team members Rohit Bhatkar and Riya Kala contributed to the shoot's success, highlighting Aneet's versatility and charm.

Humble Beginnings to Stardom

Aneet's rise to fame wasn't without challenges. At 17, she sent audition tapes and her biodata to various production houses, admitting, "Almost every production house has my terrible biodata and Snapchat-filter pictures." Before her breakout role in Saiyaara, she appeared in Salaam Venky alongside Kajol and starred in the Amazon Prime web series Big Girls Don't Cry. Her performance in Saiyaara, opposite Ahaan Panday, catapulted her to national stardom.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com