

When Bollywood Meets K-Pop: Ananya Panday Greet Jennie

Published on 09 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Fashion weeks are often where East meets West, and this time, Paris Fashion Week 2025 delivered just that. Bollywood actress Ananya Panday made waves not only for her elegant fashion statements but also for her meet-ups with global icons — none more eye-catching than Jennie from BLACKPINK. The moment blurred lines between music, film, and style in one starry frame.

The Style Tale: Crochet, Black, and Simplicity

Ananya's outfit at the Chanel Spring/Summer 2026 show resonated with elegance and restraint. She wore a matching black crochet top and mini skirt from Chanel's collection. However accessories were minimal — delicate earrings, a gold chain bag, and black sling-back pumps from Chanel complemented her look without overpowering it.

Meanwhile, Jennie's choice — while understated — stood out among the sea of couture. Therefore her casual yet polished look mirrored her signature style: effortless, cool, and subtly expressive.

The Power of Iconic Encounters

This wasn't just a fan photo—it symbolized a cross-cultural moment. Here's why it matters:

- Bridging industries: When a Bollywood star and a K-pop icon meet, it signals the merging of audiences and influence.
- Global fashion synergy: Both are associated with Chanel — Jennie as a brand ambassador, and Ananya as the first Indian global ambassador. Their meeting on Chanel's stage strengthens the brand's pan-global narrative.
- Social media ripple effects: Images of such pairings generate buzz, trending across fandoms and fashion pages alike.

Beyond the Selfie: Brand and Career Impact

This moment isn't just glitz. It carries strategic weight:

- Strengthening brand ties: For Chanel, putting its Indian ambassador side by side with a global face like Jennie reinforces the brand's global positioning.
- Widening reach: For Ananya, associating with K-pop and international stars boosts her global visibility and appeal outside Bollywood.

- Fashion diplomacy: Such encounters become statements — of unity, cultural exchange, and shared aesthetics.
