

Priyanka & Nick Glow in Ivory at NYC Diwali Bash

Published on 13 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At a glamorous Diwali bash in New York City, celebrity couple Priyanka Chopra and Nick Jonas delivered a picture-perfect moment in matching ivory looks.

They arrived at the event hosted by Anjula Acharia, dressed in coordinated ensembles that balanced tradition and contemporary fashion.

Their appearance instantly became a fashion highlight of the evening, drawing praise for its polish, harmony, and festive flair.

Priyanka's Modern Ethnic Look

For the occasion, Priyanka opted for a chic Indo-Western outfit.

She wore a three-piece ivory set featuring a sarong-style choli, a sheer, embroidered jacket with mirror detailing, and matching pants.

Her accessories were minimal yet meaningful—a delicate maang tikka, diamond drop earrings, and a furry white clutch added just the right amount of sparkle.

Her makeup emphasized her natural glow with nude tones, while her hair was styled in a neat bun with a white gajra.

Nick Matches the Mood

Nick Jonas complemented her look perfectly.

He wore a soft ivory kurta-pyjama layered under a floral-printed sherwani.

The outfit echoed Priyanka's palette, maintaining a clean and cohesive appearance.

His choice reflects sophistication in simplicity—no loud prints, no overdone embellishment—just refined styling that suited the festive setting.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com