

Sherry Singh Becomes India's First Mrs. Universe 2025

Published on 13 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

In a landmark moment for India, Sherry Singh has been crowned Mrs. Universe 2025, becoming the first Indian to ever hold this title.

The final took place at the 48th edition of the pageant, held at the Okada in Manila, Philippines, where contestants from across the world competed for the crown.

Her victory represents not just a personal milestone, but a moment of pride for India's pageant and beauty community.

The Journey Behind the Crown

Sherry Singh's path to Mrs. Universe 2025 wasn't sudden—it was built on earlier successes and determination.

Earlier this year, she won the Mrs. India 2025 pageant, which paved her way to the global competition.

She had previously also held the title Mrs. Bharat 2024, which further established her as a leading name in married-women pageantry.

At Mrs. Universe 2025, she stood out among approximately 120 participants from around the world, impressing judges with her poise, confidence, and advocacy.

Significance of the Win

Sherry's win is significant on multiple levels.

Firstly, she broke a barrier—no Indian had ever before claimed the Mrs. Universe title.

Secondly, it shines a spotlight on pageantry for married women—celebrating achievements, roles, and influence beyond youthful glamour.

Thirdly, her win underscores the growing global presence of Indian women in diverse fields—be it fashion, advocacy, business, or pageants.

Reactions & Celebrations

News of her victory sparked celebration across social media and Indian media platforms.

Fans, followers, and industry insiders hailed her win as inspiring and historic.

Many noted how her journey symbolizes the possibility of balancing personal roles and ambitious goals.
