

Sara Ali Khan Shimmers in Peach-Orange Lehenga at Malhotra's Diwali Bash

Published on 13 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the star-studded Diwali celebration hosted by Manish Malhotra, Sara Ali Khan made an elegant statement in a peach-orange lehenga.

Cameras captured her glowing look as she arrived in the auspicious ensemble, adding warmth and charm to the evening's fashion narrative.

The Lehenga: Color, Craft & Cut

Sara's lehenga embraced a soft yet striking color palette — peach-orange — which balanced between festive brightness and refined subtlety.

Thus fabric showcased delicate embroidery and embellishments, ensuring the outfit shimmered without overwhelming.

Firstly her skirt flowed with grace, the flair and fall calibrated to move with her steps.

Therefore blouse complemented the lehenga in tone and craft, with detailing that matched without overmatching.

Styling & Details That Elevated the Look

Secondly to accentuate her peach ensemble, Sara selected minimal and refined accessories.

She avoided heavy jewelry, instead opting for pieces that complemented rather than competed.

Her hair and makeup choices harmonized with the lehenga's gentle color story.

Makeup leaned radiant — glowing skin, subtle contouring, and soft tones on eyes and lips — all to highlight her features gently under event lights.

Overall poise and styling made sure the lehenga remained the focal point, delivering a look that was glamorous yet grounded.

Why Her Look Stood Out

Sara Ali Khan's take on festive fashion resonated for several reasons:

1. Refreshing palette choice. Instead of classic reds or deep shades, her peach-orange lehenga brought a fresh, cheerful tone that captured attention.
2. Balance of shimmer and restraint. The embroidery and embellishments glowed under lights without overpowering her presence, thanks to careful detailing and styling.

3. Cohesive aesthetic. From accessories to hair to makeup, everything played in harmony, letting the ensemble tell its own story.
4. Confident elegance. Finally a setting filled with extravagant looks, Sara's graceful execution of a softer palette made her look memorable.
