Some say diamonds are a girl's best friend; others swear by handbags. For Nita Ambani, it's clearly both. The chairperson and founder of the Reliance Foundation made a dazzling appearance at Manish Malhotra's annual Diwali bash, pairing her silver-sparkle sari with one of the most exclusive accessories in the world — the Hermès Kellymorphose Sac Bijou bag, worth between ₹70 lakh to ₹1 crore (USD 80,000–120,000), depending on customisation.

? A Night of Glamour and Grace

Accompanied by her daughter-in-law Radhika Merchant, Nita Ambani exuded timeless sophistication.

- Nita's look: a shimmering silver Manish Malhotra sari accessorised with emerald drop earrings and the rare mini Kellymorphose.
- Radhika's look: an elegant ivory sari adorned with diamond jewellery.

While the ensembles spoke of festive grandeur, it was the Kellymorphose Sac Bijou that stole the spotlight and set social media abuzz.

? The Iconic Kelly Reimagined

Originally designed by Robert Dumas in the 1930s, the Hermès Kelly became an international symbol of luxury after Grace Kelly made it famous in 1956. Over the decades, the bag has transcended fashion to become a global icon — and now, a piece of wearable art.

The Kellymorphose collection pays homage to this legacy, turning the signature clasp and lock of the Kelly into exquisite fine-jewellery creations. The Sac Bijou version that Nita carried is crafted from solid sterling silver and doubles as both a functional micro-bag and an ornament.

According to Hermès, it is a “bag that becomes jewellery” — worn around the neck, wrist, or fingers, available in rose gold, white gold, and silver, often set with baguette-cut diamonds.

? A Statement of Power and Luxury

With its sculptural design and gleaming finish, the Kellymorphose Sac Bijou perfectly mirrors Nita Ambani’s signature aesthetic — elegant, powerful, and unapologetically opulent. Whether it’s her couture ensembles or rare accessories, her appearances continue to redefine Indian luxury fashion on a global scale.
