Manish Malhotra's annual Diwali bash turned into a glitzy runway of stars. Among many, Sonam Bajwa caught attention with her elegant appearance. She arrived in festive splendor. She blended tradition and contemporary style.

The party, held at the designer's Mumbai residence, draws Bollywood's crème de la crème every year. From veteran icons to rising stars, the guest list shone as bright as the lights.

Sonam's Entrance & Outfit

Sonam Bajwa stepped in with poise and panache. Videos and fan edits confirm her presence.

She wore a delicate light-toned lehenga or saree (ethnic silhouette) with intricate embellishments. The ensemble featured shimmer, fine detailing, and sheer accents. The look was soft yet striking.

Her jewelry complemented the outfit: layered necklaces, statement earrings, and subtle accessories that added glamour without overpowering her look. Her hair was styled in soft waves, framing her face gracefully.

Overall, her look balanced festive sparkle with refined taste — a standout among many showy outfits.

Style & Impact

Festive Yet Elegant

Rather than choosing bold, saturated hues, Sonam opted for a more subdued palette. This choice gave her a luminous presence, letting the detailing do the talking.

Trend Alignment

Her look reflected current trends in Bollywood festive fashion: pastels, metallic accents, and minimal overstatement. It was a reminder that elegance can coexist with celebration.

Photogenic Moments

Candid shots and red-carpet frames captured her at various angles — walking, greeting, posing. The soft lighting of the bash accentuated the shimmer and layers of her outfit.

Her presence added regional representation too — many applauded seeing a Punjabi actress shining on a big Bollywood fashion night. Social media buzzed with admiration
