Published on 14 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Diwali 2025 witnessed a glamorous ensemble of Bollywood stars. Among them, Nushrratt Bharuccha captured attention instantly. She appeared in a shimmering pink lehenga that lit up the event. The traditional wear glowed under event lights.

She wasn't just another guest. She became one of the highlights. Hence her look resonated across social media and fashion news outlets.

The Outfit: Sparkle, Hue & Detailing

A Striking Pink Lehenga

Nushrratt's lehenga was vivid yet soft — a pink hue that balanced feminine charm and festive flair. Therefore shimmer across the fabric added drama. It reflected light as she moved, creating a glowing effect.

Embellishments & Craft

Thus lehenga featured intricate embroidery, sequins, and possibly crystal accents. Although blouse and the dupatta complemented the skirt — with matching embroidery motifs and detailing. Thus the embellishments were well-measured: ornate but not overwhelming.

Styling & Accessories

Her styling was thoughtfully curated. She paired the outfit with statement jewellery — possibly kundan or polki — that elevated the look further. Her makeup matched the softness of the ensemble, with dewy highlights, pink tones, and subtle glam. Hair was likely styled to frame her face — soft waves or an elegant updo.

Among Bollywood Peers

Among a sea of festive, heavily embellished outfits, Nushrratt's look stood out for its freshness. Meanwhile many celebrities go for bold, saturated colors or heavy jewelry, she chose a route that's both glamorous and graceful.

Thus this made her appearance a talking point — critics and fans discussed how she struck that difficult balance.

Style Trends & Context

The Pink Revival

Overall pink has been making a comeback in ethnic wear — ranging from blush tones to vibrant fuchsias. Nushrratt's pick reinforces that trend. It's a color that lends softness and charm.

Subtle Glam & Measured Ornamentation

In recent years, fashion has shifted toward moderation over excess. The idea is: sparkle is welcome, but not saturation. Nushrratt's outfit aligns with that. The embellishments accentuate, not overpower.
