

Sidharth Malhotra Cuts a Sharp Figure at Manish Malhotra's

Published on 14 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood actor Sidharth Malhotra was among the notable attendees at Manish Malhotra's Diwali Bash 2025. He appeared stylish and composed, fitting right into the evening's elaborate fashion spectacle. Social media buzzed with images and reels of his arrival. One post described him as "glammed up and glowing" in the party's festive lighting.

Video clips further captured him walking alongside his wife, Kiara Advani, as the cameras trailed them.

The Look: Elegant Ethnic Ensemble

Though detailed press commentary on Sidharth's outfit is limited, available visuals suggest the following:

- He wore a classic ethnic set, likely an embroidered kurta paired with trousers or churidar.
- His color palette appeared restrained and elegant, possibly in neutral or deep tones conducive to evening festive wear.
- The outfit seemed well-shaped, with tailoring that accentuated his physique while retaining traditional charm.
- Minimal embellishments or contrast accents complemented the look, maintaining a dignified balance in a crowd of ornate ensembles.

Style & Presence

Even with few explicit reports, a few styling observations stood out:

- His grooming was sharp—neat hair, polished appearance.
- Accessories, if any, appeared subtle (perhaps a watch, cufflinks, or pocket square) so as not to distract from the main outfit.
- His challenge in such settings is to stand out without overdoing it; in the videos, he seems to have succeeded by blending classic style with confident bearing.
