At the glitzy Diwali bash thrown by Manish Malhotra, Riteish Deshmukh made a sharp and stylish appearance, turning heads with his classic ethnic styling. He arrived alongside his wife Genelia D'Souza, adding charm to their couples' entrance that was widely shared across social media.

Fans and fashion watchers remarked that the couple "redefined couple goals" with their coordinated presence.

The Look: Refined Ethnic Styling

While descriptions of his outfit are unmissable, the visuals and commentary provide clues:

- Riteish appears dressed in a classic ethnic ensemble. The outfit seems to lean toward darker tones, possibly black or deep shades, aligning with the festive yet dignified atmosphere.
- The cut and fit look tailored and crisp—a kurta or traditional jacket style that fits his physique elegantly.
- His styling is effective: minimal embellishments, clean lines, and understated elegance that lets the overall appearance shine without being flashy.

His look works in harmony with Genelia's more embellished fashion statement—while she embraces shimmer and color, he complements with refined simplicity.

Presence, Poise & Impact

Appearance is just part of the story. Riteish carried his look with confidence and ease. His composed poise, the way he walked the red carpet alongside Genelia, and their synchronized presence.
