Nora Fatehi steps into festive mode with a look that feels both regal and radiant. In a recent Diwali x Cartier photoshoot featured on Tupaki, she embodies celebration—with grace, sparkle, and style.

The backdrop is warm and luxurious; the outfit matches its grandeur.

The Gown: Beads, Threads & Silhouettes

- Her ensemble is a gown by Falguni Shane Peacock, richly embellished with silver and gold beads and threads.
- It has intricate beadwork all over, which accentuates her silhouette—highlighting curves while maintaining elegant structure.
- The texture and shimmer of the gown make it perfect for festive or celebratory shoots, especially around Diwali, where sparkle is key
- Makeup presumably plays along: radiant skin, subtle highlight, letting the outfit do most of the talking (as is typical in such portraits).
