Manish Malhotra's 2025 Diwali soirée was not just about the celebrity guests—it was a visual feast. From intricate décor to dramatic lighting, every element seemed curated for cinematic effect.

The designer shared glimpses of the celebration via Instagram Stories, and attendees also posted visuals that offered sneak peeks into the ambience.

The Ambience: Red Flowers & Floating Lights

One of the most striking features was the pervasive use of red blooms. Several corners of the venue were draped in red flowers, adding depth and richness.

Interspersed among the floral decor were hanging candles—delicate suspended lights that cast a warm, flickering glow over the space. The effect was both intimate and theatrical.

Lush greenery framed the space, and round tables with white floral arrangements offered breaks in the red-and-gold scheme.

Table Settings, Treats & the Cake

The food presentation was part of the show. Among the desserts and savories, the standout was a multi-tiered chocolate cake—a highlight that drew social media attention.

Desserts and delicacies were arranged in elegant trays and bowls, surrounded by red floral accents that tied them into the décor narrative.
