

Urmila Matondkar Glimmers Elegance at Diwali Bash

Published on 15 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Legendary actress Urmila Matondkar was among the celebrated faces at Manish Malhotra's 2025 Diwali bash. Her presence — elegant, poised, and ever radiant — quickly became a highlight in the fashion frames from the evening. Social media and event footage show her arriving with confidence, pausing for photographers, and owning her moment under the lights.

The Look: Glamour with Restraint

While details are not fully confirmed, the images and posts allow us to piece together the key elements of her outfit:

- She appears to have worn a highly embellished ethnic ensemble, rich in sparkle and texture — suited to the grandeur of a Diwali soir  e.
- The tonality and shine in her outfit suggest metallics or sequined adornments, likely in neutral or jewel tones that caught the event lighting beautifully.
- Her styling appeared deliberate: hair neatly done, makeup glowing, and accessories chosen to complement but not overpower.
- In her social posts, she radiates confidence and elegance, indicating that she embraced the formal, celebratory mood fully.

Presence, Poise & Impact

Urmila's look was not just about the outfit—it was how she carried it. In the arrival footage, she walked steadily, stopping for photos and allowing the cameras to capture her expressions.

Her social media reveal, captioned in a bold "Stuns" style, suggests she, too, saw this appearance as a statement.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com