Sanya Malhotra made a fairytale entrance at Manish Malhotra's 2025 Diwali bash, embracing “Cinderella in pink” vibes with a romantic off-shoulder dress. Her look became one of the highlights of the evening, striking a balance between elegance and whimsy.

Here's a detailed look at her outfit, styling, and impact.

The Dress: Off-Shoulder Pink Romance

Sanya opted for a soft blush / pastel pink off-shoulder gown that evoked delicate elegance. The off-shoulder neckline lent a graceful, feminine silhouette.

The fabric appeared lightweight, flowing with movement, giving it a dreamy, almost ethereal aura. The dress's colour and cut both played into the “Cinderella” narrative that media and fashion watchers embraced.

Images of her look circulated widely on social media, reinforcing how the outfit resonated with the festive theme.

Styling & Accessories

To complement the soft pink, Sanya kept accessories refined and minimal. The goal appeared to be accentuating more than competing with her dress.

Her hair was styled to match the romantic tone — soft waves or loose curls, likely swept to one side to allow the off-shoulder detail to shine.

Makeup & Overall Aesthetic

Her makeup was likely soft and glowing — a subtle blush, luminous highlighter, gentle eye makeup, and natural lips. The aim was a fresh, radiant face rather than dramatic glam.

Overall, the aesthetic was poised, romantic, and festival-appropriate. In a sea of richer, more traditional or heavily embellished outfits, Sanya's pastel, airy approach stood out for its softness.
