Actress and digital creator Kusha Kapila turned heads at the exclusive Lifestyle Asia Diwali Party held on October 14, 2025. Known for her impeccable fashion sense and bold personality, Kusha graced the event in a breathtaking ensemble that seamlessly blended traditional elegance with contemporary flair.

A Vision in Pink: The Kimi Sari by Aikeyah

Kusha's outfit featured the Kimi Sari by emerging designer Aikeyah, priced at ₹48,500. The sari, crafted from luxurious fabric, was adorned with intricate embellishments that added a touch of sparkle, making it a perfect choice for the festive occasion. The soft pink hue complemented Kusha's complexion, enhancing her radiant appearance.

Styling and Accessories

To complement her ensemble, Kusha paired the sari with a chic Meera Mahadevia bag, adding a touch of sophistication to her look. Her footwear, Aprajita Toor shoes, featured contemporary designs that balanced the traditional elements of her outfit. Styled by Devanshi and Harshita, Kusha's hair was in soft waves, and her makeup was minimal yet elegant, allowing her attire to remain the focal point.

Event Highlights

The Lifestyle Asia Diwali Party 2025 was a star-studded affair, attracting Bollywood's elite. The event showcased a fusion of traditional Indian elements with contemporary fashion, reflecting the evolving trends in the industry. Celebrities and influencers gathered to celebrate the festive season, with many turning heads in their meticulously curated outfits.

Kusha's Empowering Message

Beyond her stunning appearance, Kusha delivered an empowering message to her fans this Diwali. She urged everyone to embrace self-love and authenticity, stating, "Don't be a diya or pataka this Diwali, just be you." Her words resonated with many, blending traditional festive fashion with a modern, empowering outlook.
