Published on 16 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Young Bollywood actor Ibrahim Ali Khan made heads turn at the star-studded Manish Malhotra Diwali Party 2025. Known for his style and charm, Ibrahim brought a perfect mix of tradition and contemporary fashion to the festive event held on October 14.

A Dapper Traditional Look

Ibrahim opted for a deep maroon achkan over a kurta, showcasing a sophisticated traditional ensemble with a modern touch. The rich color and tailored fit highlighted his poised presence on the red carpet. Minimal accessories and a sleek hairstyle ensured the focus remained on his attire, making him one of the standout male guests of the evening.

Playful Moments with Star Kids

Adding to the charm, Ibrahim showcased his playful side by inviting Arhaan Khan and Nirvaan Khan to join him for photographs. The candid moments captured the camaraderie among Bollywood's younger generation, evoking memories of the close bond shared by Salman Khan and Saif Ali Khan in their youth. Fans were quick to praise the wholesome interactions, which went viral on social media.

The Event Highlights

Manish Malhotra's Diwali party is a high-profile affair that attracts Bollywood's elite. The 2025 edition was no exception, featuring celebrities in glamorous ensembles, exquisite décor, and a lively atmosphere. Ibrahim's presence added to the youthful energy of the night, as he seamlessly combined elegance with charisma.

Setting a Fashion Benchmark

Ibrahim Ali Khan's appearance highlighted the next generation's growing influence in Bollywood fashion. His choice of attire — traditional yet modern, festive yet understated — set a benchmark for young actors. With such poised appearances, he continues to establish himself as a fashion-forward personality to watch in the industry.
