

Rhea Chakraborty Dazzles in Vikram Phadnis Saree

Published on 17 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Actress Rhea Chakraborty has once again captured the spotlight with her impeccable fashion sense. Recently, she shared a glamorous photo on her Instagram with the caption, “Desi girls are the happiest girls.” In the photo, Rhea is seen posing gracefully in a stunning saree designed by renowned fashion designer Vikram Phadnis. This ensemble exudes traditional elegance with a contemporary twist, highlighting Rhea’s versatile style.

A Glimpse into the Look

Rhea’s saree features intricate embroidery and a rich color palette, adding depth and texture to the traditional drape. She accessorized with delicate jewelry from Queenie Singh and Jewels by Queenie, enhancing the ensemble’s elegance. Her makeup, done by Aafreen Makeup and Hair, was flawless, and her hair was styled by Hair.Me. Overall completing the look. Therefore the ensemble was captured beautifully by photographer Akshay Amberkar, showcasing Rhea’s poise and grace.

Known for her impeccable fashion sense and confident presence, Rhea effortlessly turns every appearance into a statement, inspiring fashion enthusiasts across India.

Rhea Chakraborty’s recent saree look exemplifies her timeless elegance and evolving fashion journey. Finally blending traditional attire with contemporary styling, she continues to set trends and captivate audiences with her grace and poise. Her choice of Vikram Phadnis’ design further underscores her commitment to supporting Indian craftsmanship and showcasing the beauty of traditional wear.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com