

Priyanka Chopra Shines in White at Star-Studded New York Diwali Bash

Published on 17 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Global icon Priyanka Chopra brought her signature charm and grace to a pre-Diwali celebration in New York, redefining festive glamour in a striking white ensemble. Joined by husband Nick Jonas, the couple delivered major style goals in coordinated ivory outfits, effortlessly blending tradition and contemporary elegance.

A White Twist on Diwali Glamour

For the star-studded evening, Chopra chose a floor-length white dress adorned with delicate embroidery and a subtle sheen, balancing sophistication with understated festivity. Styled with minimal jewellery, soft waves, and dewy makeup, her look radiated confidence and timeless elegance.

White, a colour often associated with purity and peace, offered a refreshing departure from the typically vibrant Diwali palette. Chopra's fashion instincts ensured the unconventional hue felt festive, modern, and utterly chic.

Couple Goals: Priyanka & Nick

Nick Jonas complemented her look in a matching ivory kurta set, creating a perfectly coordinated couple moment. Their ensemble celebrated cultural heritage while remaining effortlessly contemporary, capturing the attention of guests and social media alike.

The evening was filled with familiar faces from the Indian community and global entertainment circuit, featuring diyas, sweets, and music — yet all eyes were on Chopra's effortless style, which stood out as a lesson in understated yet impactful festive fashion.

Redefining Festive Style

Priyanka Chopra's choice proves that Diwali fashion doesn't always need to be loud or colorful. Minimalism, individuality, and elegance can create just as much impact as traditional extravagance — a reminder that festive style is as much about personal expression as celebration.