

5 Delightfully Odd Beauty Products You'll Secretly Love

Published on 18 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Beauty doesn't always have to be serious. Sometimes, the most unconventional products deliver the most delightful results. From acne-fighting LED patches to bubbly clay masks, here are five quirky beauty products that are surprisingly effective and fun to use.

1. World Beauty Care Acnebye Electronic Acne Patches

These smart patches use red and blue LED light to target breakouts and marks, while looking like trendy little stickers. Infused with Centella Asiatica and vitamin C, they calm, heal, and brighten as you go about your day. Waterproof and discreet, each patch provides up to 8 hours of comfortable, targeted treatment using microchip technology.

2. Elizavecca Milky Piggy Carbonated Bubble Clay Mask

This mask starts as a basic clay treatment but then bubbles up into a fizzy, foam-like texture. It deep cleans your pores like a mini vacuum, leaving your skin baby-smooth. Plus, filming a time-lapse of it bubbling is 100% going on your Instagram-worthy.

3. Solaris Labs NY Hair Boost Red LED Hat

This clever cap uses red LED therapy to support hair growth while you go about your day. It might sound a bit unusual, but it really works. LED therapy for hair growth has some serious science behind it, and this hat makes it easy to sneak in a treatment. Using it three times a week can show noticeable improvements in hair density and health.

4. Coco de Mer Pure Delight Orgasm Balm

The name says it all, and honestly, it delivers. This luxe little balm is packed with nourishing oils like jojoba, olive, and vitamin E, plus a touch of menthol and peppermint to boost blood flow and bring a warm, tingly sensation where it counts most. A small dab before play (solo or partnered) heightens sensitivity and can seriously turn up the intensity.

5. Geske Warm & Cool Eye Energizer 6 in 1

This is the Swiss Army knife of under-eye tools. It heats, cools, vibrates, and probably whispers words of affirmation. The cooling function depuffs like a dream, especially post-cry session. The warmth makes your eyes feel relaxed and calm. It even helps with dark circles.
