

Chandrika Ravi Exudes Timeless Elegance in Black Saree

Published on 18 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Actress Chandrika Ravi recently showcased her timeless elegance in a captivating portrait. She wore a black saree adorned with vibrant red floral prints, complemented by a shimmering gold border that added a touch of opulence. Her expressive eyes, framed by subtle kohl, and her radiant smile enhanced the traditional elegance of her look. Accessorized with a delicate choker necklace and layered bangles, and with her hair neatly coiled in a bun, she embodied the poise of South Indian glamour.

Acting Career Highlights

Chandrika Ravi made her Telugu debut with the popular song “Maa Bava Manobhavalu Debbathinnayi” from Veera Simha Reddy, where she gained massive attention for her energetic performance. Reflecting on her experience, she shared, “I grew up watching Balakrishna’s films. I admire him and his work a lot. Sharing the screen space and also dancing with Balakrishna is an unforgettable experience. Balakrishna’s knowledge about life and movies is amazing. I will cherish these memories for the rest of my life.”

Upcoming Projects

Chandrika is set to appear in the Tamil film Blackmail, starring Jeevi Prakash Kumar. The film is going to showcase her versatility and further establish her presence in the industry.
