

Rohit Gandhi + Rahul Khanna Unveil 'ASTRIDE' at Deccan Derby 2025

Published on 18 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the Deccan Derby 2025, renowned designer duo Rohit Gandhi and Rahul Khanna showcased their latest collection, 'ASTRIDE'. At this year's Deccan Derby 2025, fashion aficionados and celebrities gathered to witness a spectacular showcase by Rohit Gandhi and Rahul Khanna. This presentation marked a significant moment in Indian fashion, seamlessly blending equestrian elegance with contemporary design elements.

Collection Highlights

'ASTRIDE' drew inspiration from the grandeur of equestrian culture, incorporating structured silhouettes and luxurious fabrics. The collection featured tailored jackets, flowing skirts, and intricate embroidery, all reflecting the designers' commitment to craftsmanship and innovation.

- Tailored Jackets: Crisp, fitted blazers reminiscent of classic equestrian attire, elevated with modern cuts.
- Flowing Skirts and Pants: Designed for movement, these pieces balanced the structured jackets with fluidity.
- Statement Embellishments: Intricate embroidery, metallic accents, and subtle layering emphasized the attention to detail.
- Color Palette: Earthy tones like chestnut, beige, and olive, accented with rich burgundy and deep navy, evoked a regal yet approachable feel.

Transitioning from traditional equestrian motifs to modern runway-ready garments, Gandhi and Khanna created a fusion of functionality and high fashion, demonstrating their mastery in balancing heritage and contemporary trends.

A Fusion of Tradition and Modernity

The event highlighted the designers' ability to merge traditional elements with modern aesthetics. Models strutted the runway in ensembles that paid homage to classic equestrian attire while introducing fresh, contemporary twists.

The Deccan Derby served as a glamorous backdrop for the ASTRIDE collection. Models walked the runway exuding confidence, while cameras captured the meticulous detailing of each ensemble. Industry insiders praised the designers for their innovative approach to heritage-inspired fashion, noting that the collection bridges the gap between couture and wearable luxury.
