In short: Tanya Mittal, a contestant on Bigg Boss 19, has become a talking-point not just for her on-screen behaviour but for her saree wardrobe. She reportedly brought “800 sarees” into the show. What follows are five standout saree looks (since multiple lists differ slightly), what makes each special, and how you can adapt them.

Highlight Looks & Style Notes

#	Look Description	Why It Stands Out	How to Adapt
1	Red & White Chiffon – breezy red-and-white tones, soft drape.	Fresh colour combo, light fabric ? daytime glam in saree format.	Choose red-white drama but keep blouse simple; minimal jewellery for daylight.
2	Royal Blue Banarasi – deep blue silk with silver/gold border.	Traditional textile elevated with colour and border; strong festival or formal pick.	Invest in a border-rich silk and pair with contrasting jewellery for impact.
3	Bright Yellow Georgette with Pink Banarasi Dupatta – playful mix of colours.	Colour blocking in drape + dupatta = bold yet wearable.	Pick a vibrant drape and throw over an unexpected dupatta colour for youthful twist.
4	Green Silk Plain with Golden Border – understated elegance.	Simplicity with subtle regal detail; good for less-ornate occasions.	Plain silk + attention to border and blouse detailing = stylish without overdoing.
5	Pink Chiffon with Deep V-neck Blouse – soft yet statement.	Modern blouse cut combined with flowing drape; merges tradition + trend.	Choose a pastel drape and opt for a statement blouse to modernise the look.
