

Karisma Kapoor Exudes Classic Charm in a ₹26,000 Raw Silk Kurta Set

Published on 27 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood's style icon Karisma Kapoor once again proved that elegance lies in simplicity. For the Diwali 2025 celebrations, she embraced a traditional yet sophisticated ensemble from House of Masaba, priced at ₹26,000. The outfit perfectly captured her timeless fashion sensibility—refined, poised, and deeply rooted in Indian craftsmanship.

The Outfit: A Perfect Balance of Tradition and Contemporary Design

The black-and-white raw silk kurta set featured a distinctive cherry-vine print, adding a refreshing twist to festive wear. Subtle gold embroidery accentuated the neckline and cuffs, infusing the look with understated glamour. The fabric's natural sheen elevated the simplicity of the silhouette, giving Karisma a graceful presence.

Her ensemble beautifully merged heritage motifs with a modern cut, staying true to House of Masaba's signature style. The brand, known for celebrating Indian textiles with a global aesthetic, found the perfect muse in Karisma.

Accessorising with Minimalism

Staying true to her effortlessly chic persona, Karisma opted for minimal accessories. She paired the kurta set with delicate gold earrings, a classic watch, and a statement ring. Her clutch, a neutral-toned piece with metallic accents, subtly complemented the look without overpowering it.

By avoiding heavy jewellery, the actress allowed the intricate cherry-vine print to remain the focal point of her outfit.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com