In a recent feature titled “Braided Queen Look”, Malvika Sharma steps into a new style chapter.

The caption for the shoot reads: “Braided like a queen, acting like one too,” which matches the visual tone.

Styling highlights

- Hairstyle: The standout feature is Malvika’s intricate braids—styled to give a crown-like effect, combining tradition with bold structure.
- Outfit: She wears an ensemble by designers Jayesh & Kaajal Shah, noted for rich textures and layered detailing.
- Jewellery: Her look is complemented by glam jewellery from Joyalukkas, adding the right amount of luxe to the frames.
- Mood & message: The shoot is described as a “celebration of elegance, power and authenticity”, hinting at Malvika’s evolving image in the industry.

Why this look stands out

- Hair as the focal point: While many celebrity looks focus on outfit or makeup, this one places the braided hairstyle front and centre—giving a visual identity that sticks.
- Modern tradition fusion: The styling fuses regal heritage elements (braids, rich fabrics) with contemporary photography and attitude.
- Strong narrative: This is not just a style moment—it’s a statement. The wording around it (“queen”, “acting like one too”) reinforces the narrative of empowerment and transformation.
- Versatility in image and brand: For Malvika Sharma, known in Telugu and Tamil cinema, this photoshoot broadens her styling repertoire and helps craft a pan-Indian glamorous profile.
