

Shraddha Srinath Stuns in Red-One-Shoulder Dress

Published on 31 Oct 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

As the release of her new thriller Aaryan approaches, Shraddha Srinath stepped into the spotlight with an eye-catching style moment. During the film's promotional campaign, she walked out in a vivid red one-shoulder gown designed by Aroka Official—a choice that not only complemented the film's high-stakes mood but positioned her look as a standout fashion moment.

Styled by Harshene Ravichandar, with makeup by Kohl Play and hair by Shivaraj Hairstylist, Shraddha's polished aesthetic blended modern glam with bold colour storytelling. Jewellery by Kalon Art Jewellery added a refined touch to the strong visual statement. The photo-shoot, captured by photographer Hrischique, shows her against a red-toned backdrop, creating a seamless imagery for the campaign.

Why This Look Resonates

- Colour impact: The deep red hue not only commands attention but aligns with the thriller's heightened energy—ideal for a promotional phase.
- Design detail: A one-shoulder silhouette brings a sense of sophistication, while the fabric and fit reflect contemporary evening-wear trends.
- Styling cohesion: From hair to accessories, the minimal-yet-sharp choices kept the focus on the gown and Shraddha's presence—an effective fashion storytelling technique.
- Timing & relevance: With the film's release imminent (31 Oct 2025), this style drop works as both a promotional tool and a standalone fashion moment.

Style Takeaways & How You Can Borrow It

For anyone looking to take inspiration from Shraddha's look:

- Opt for a single statement piece (like a bold-coloured gown) and let styling be simple.
- When wearing strong colour and dramatic cut, keep accessories minimal to avoid visual clutter.
- Match backdrop or setting to your outfit when possible—contrast or coordination enhances impact.
- Ensure your hair and makeup support the outfit mood—not distract from it. A sleek hairstyle and refined makeup suit bold dress choices well.
