

Ananya Panday Channels Royalty with Maharani Gayatri Devi-Inspired Saree Look

Published on 01 Nov 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood actor Ananya Panday embraced regal elegance in her latest appearance, channeling the timeless style of Maharani Gayatri Devi. She draped herself in a lace saree designed by Manish Malhotra, and paired it with a rare vintage corset from Jacques Fath, originally crafted in 1948.

This look isn't just about fashion—it's a celebration of heritage, style legacy and sophisticated glamour.

The Look: Details Worth Noting

- The saree: A delicate lace piece, featuring fine embroidery and a sheer texture that evoked old-world portrait elegance.
- The corset: The 1948 haute-couture piece by Jacques Fath added structure and vintage finesse, elevating the ensemble beyond conventional saree styling.
- Styling & accessories: Ananya kept the look refined—minimal accessories, polished makeup and hair that let the couture speak.
- Inspiration & homage: She explicitly referenced Maharani Gayatri Devi as her inspiration, indicating a deliberate nod to a bygone era.

Why This Moment Resonates

- Heritage meets modernity: By merging a vintage corset with an Indian saree, the styling bridges eras—honouring legacy while staying contemporary.
- Style evolution: Ananya is showing maturity in her fashion choices, embracing nuanced glamour rather than just bold, trendy looks.
- Iconic reference points: Maharani Gayatri Devi stands as a statement of elegance and charm. Emulating her aesthetic places Ananya in a conversation about fashion legacy, not just celebrity dressing.
- Craft and couture: Featuring a saree by a top Indian designer, and a rare piece from haute-couture history, the look underscores fashion as art and storytelling—beyond mere clothes.
