

Rashmika Mandanna: “Queen of Hearts” at SIIMA 2025

Published on 03 Nov 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Rashmika Mandanna arrived at the 2025 SIIMA Awards with the confidence and radiance befitting her growing stardom—and the media captured every moment. According to a photo-gallery release, the actor was described as “The Queen of Hearts” for her charm, elegance and effortless style during the event.

Her presence on the red carpet wasn't just about the outfit. The write-up emphasised how she “continues to win hearts across industries ... from Kannada and Telugu cinema to her impactful presence in Bollywood.”

Style & Presence

Rashmika's look at the event was to reflect both glamour and a sense of ownership:

- Outfit choice: She wore an ensemble that balanced modern tailoring with red-carpet allure—making her silhouette stand out while remaining graceful.
- Glamour details: With radiant makeup, confident pose and styled hair, she brought a polished look that matched her star power.
- Persona: Beyond the visuals, her reputation for positivity, professionalism and approachability adds to her “Queen of Hearts” moniker. The article noted her charm and joy-filled spirit.

Style Takeaways Inspired by Rashmika

- Choose an outfit that highlights your best features
- Combine glamour with authenticity—her expression and posture enhance the outfit.
- Embrace versatility—she moves between regional cinema, Bollywood and fashion events, showing adaptability.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com