

Sahher Bambba Stuns as Show-Stopper for Richa Khemka

Published on 04 Nov 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood actor Sahher Bambba lit up the runway at Lakmé Fashion Week 2025, turning heads as the showstopper for designer Richa Khemka.

As she made her way down the runway, Sahher radiated confidence in a stunning strapless gown. The look featured a textured ivory corset paired with a voluminous black velvet skirt, creating a captivating play of contrast and texture. The ensemble beautifully reflected Richa Khemka's design philosophy—merging vintage charm with contemporary sensibilities. Every stitch of the creation told a story of strength and femininity, and Sahher brought it to life with ease.

A Runway Moment to Remember

Transitioning from her screen presence to the fashion stage, Sahher showcased her versatility with remarkable flair. Her sleek hairstyle—an elegant bun with soft tendrils framing her face—added to the timeless appeal of her outfit. Complementing the look, her makeup exuded subtle glamour, highlighting dewy skin, kohl-lined eyes, and a hint of shimmer. A pair of diamond earrings provided just the right touch of sparkle, keeping the focus firmly on her captivating outfit.

Designer Richa Khemka's "Vantage" collection drew inspiration from the idea of viewing the world from a higher perspective—where tradition and innovation converge. Through rich fabrics, structured silhouettes, and intricate detailing, Khemka celebrated women who carry both grace and power in equal measure. Sahher embodied that message perfectly, turning the ramp into her own moment of triumph.

Moreover, Sahher's appearance wasn't just about fashion—it was about celebrating confidence and individuality. Her strong runway presence reflected her growth as an artist who continues to evolve beyond acting. Each stride she took resonated with ambition, elegance, and self-assurance, leaving the audience enthralled.
