

Top Stylish Players: India Women's Cricket Team's Fashion A-List

Published on 04 Nov 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

The women of the Indian cricket team aren't just smashing records—they're also making waves in style. Following their impressive on-field performances, stars like Smriti Mandhana, Jemimah Rodrigues, Harmanpreet Kaur, Yastika Bhatia and Harleen Deol are proving equally formidable off the field with their standout fashion choices.

Smriti Mandhana: Effortless Elegance

At the forefront of this style movement is Smriti Mandhana. On duty and off duty, she adopts silhouettes that speak comfort, polish and quiet confidence. Whether it's a cosy kurta for travel or a pastel-embroidered saree for an appearance, she shows that elegance can be subtle yet powerful.

Jemimah Rodrigues: Youthful Vibes & Trend Play

Jemimah Rodrigues brings an injection of youthful energy to the team's fashion front. With playful streetwear, sporty jackets and pops of colour, she reframes athlete style into casual chic. Her wardrobe echoes her personality—bold, expressive and trend-ready.

Harmanpreet Kaur: Power Dressing with Grace

As captain, Harmanpreet Kaur's style mirrors her leadership—sharp silhouettes, structured tailoring and thoughtfully chosen ethnicwear. She opts for modern power dressing that keeps one foot rooted in tradition and the other in confident contemporary styling.

Yastika Bhatia: Minimalist Magic

Yastika Bhatia leans into minimalism and chic simplicity. Her fashion aesthetic—clean lines, soft hues and understated accessories—suggests that true style often comes from restraint. She proves you don't need dramatic statements to make a lasting impression.

Harleen Deol: Athletic Glam with Attitude

Known for her stellar fielding and athleticism, Harleen Deol also knows how to command attention off the field. With bold looks, modern silhouettes and coordinated accessories, she brings the edge—showcasing that sporty meets glamorous without compromise.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com