

Kajal Aggarwal's Serene Vineyard Getaway in Yarra Valley

Published on 05 Nov 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Actress Kajal Aggarwal recently shared a visual diary of her serene getaway to the picturesque Yarra Valley in Victoria, Australia.

Her stop at Levantine Winery was as “a true sensory delight” in which art, architecture and nature coexist.

Moments of Reflection

Kajal is absorbing the beauty of the vineyard landscape—vine rows under golden light, expansive valley views. She also visited Chandonaus Estate, enjoying its modern, airy charm and lush gardens that offered a “different kind of magic”. She shared a playful note too: even as the only teetotaller at the vineyard. Meanwhile she sipped “warm water from my wine glass” — capturing a light-hearted side to her high-style vacation.

Why It Resonates

- The escape signifies a deliberate pause for Kajal—a moment away from camera lights and film sets, engaging with nature and design.
- It highlights her interest in interiors, décor and aesthetics – she found inspiration in the textures, spaces and organic elegance of the location.
- For fans and fashion watchers, the imagery aligns with a growing travel-style narrative: celebs not just at luxury resorts, but at destination spots.
- The mood of the trip—calm, composed, stylish—echoes an evolving celebrity travel brand: presence with personality, not just glamour.
