

Shruti Marathe Radiates Royal Charm in Olive-Green Dress

Published on 07 Nov 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Marathi actress Shruti Marathe has once again captured attention with a stunning new photoshoot. In images that have gone viral on social media, she sports an olive-green designer ensemble that effortlessly marries traditional grandeur with contemporary style.

A Look Fit for a Royal Occasion

The outfit's design speaks volumes: the bodice features intricate sequin and thread-work detailing, adding shimmer and texture. A one-shoulder net frill elevates the silhouette, giving it both movement and modern flair. The skirt flows in an elegant silhouette that echoes classic drape while maintaining a fashion-forward edge. Accessories complete the ensemble: a diamond necklace, pearl earrings and stylised bracelet and ring combinations lend the outfit its royal finish. Additionally, red rose flowers woven into her hair give the styling a nostalgic, almost vintage appeal.

Fusion of Heritage & Modernity

What stands out is how the look fuses tradition and modernity. While the rich green colour and elaborate hand-work evoke classic Indian festive wear, the asymmetrical frill and contemporary cut bring in an international fashion sensibility. This balance demonstrates Shruti's growing ability to own looks that bridge different style worlds. According to local fashion commentary, the photoshoot conveys sophistication while remaining deeply rooted in cultural elegance.

Why the Look Resonates

- Colour choice: The olive-green hue is both rich and wearable, striking a balance between standout and understated.
- Craft detail: The sequin and thread-work add depth and luxury, ensuring the outfit doesn't feel flat under photography lighting.
- Statement elements: The one-shoulder net frill and bold accessories ensure visual interest and make it ideal for both photoshoots and formal appearances.
- Styling coherence: Hair styled with roses, jewellery in sync with the outfit's tone—all work together to produce a seamless look.
