At the 2025 Qatar Grand Prix, Kareena Kapoor Khan turned the racetrack into a runway. The Bollywood actress stunned fans by combining laid-back sophistication with boss-lady energy, proving once again why she's among the country's most stylish icons.

She shared a series of images on Instagram under the caption “Qatar F1 – 2025”, showing off her effortless chic amidst roaring engines, pit-lanes and celebrity camaraderie.

The Look :

- Kareena opted for a crisp white shirt and matching trousers, layered with a slate-blue tailored blazer — a striking monochrome-plus-pop palette that reflected both elegance and modern edge.
- The clean lines and sharp tailoring of the ensemble lent her a “boss woman” vibe — perfect for the high-energy, high-glamour setting of F1. Many admired her for bringing fashion-forward sensibilities to a sporting event.

More Than Just Style

Beyond the outfit, what made her appearance buzzworthy:

- She mingled with global names — former football star David Beckham, celebrity chef Gordon Ramsay and entertainer Steve Harvey — blending Bollywood glamour with international flair in one frame.
- Her Instagram feed captured the full F1 experience — from the rush of race cars to candid, off-beat moments like her ear-protection headphones and a wristband captioned “Keeping the band for Tim” (a nod to her son), showing her down-to-earth side.

Fans were quick to react — some called it a “fever dream” seeing Bollywood, motorsport, and global icons in one frame; others applauded her style and confident aura.
