

Isha Ambani's Bold Move: Chanel Perfume-Bottle Clutch with Manish Malhotra Couture

Published on 10 Dec 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Businesswoman and style-icon Isha Ambani recently grabbed attention with a striking new look: a custom outfit by famed designer Manish Malhotra, paired with an unusual yet chic accessory — a mini bag styled like a perfume bottle from Chanel.

For her outing, Isha chose a white silk shirt and skirt set accentuated with gold detailing — both pieces custom-crafted by Manish Malhotra. She styled them with a golden belt and golden buttons, making for a luminous, elegant ensemble. The surprising highlight though was her bag selection: she carried a signature Chanel combo — a tiny tufted bag along with a clutch shaped like the iconic Chanel No. 5 perfume bottle, held by golden chains. This accessory choice — unconventional yet sophisticated — instantly set tongues wagging.

Complementing the outfit and bag, Isha opted for minimal, natural makeup and soft loose waves for her hair — letting her outfit and accessory do the talking.

Fans and fashion watchers praised the look on social media, calling it a “beautiful, classic look” and appreciating the seamless blend of East-meets-West styling.

This combination — designer couture with a bold, playful accessory — reinforces Isha Ambani's reputation as a trendsetter who isn't afraid to experiment and redefine style norms.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com