Kriti Sanon Steals the Spotlight in All-Black Gown at Red Sea Film Festival

Published on 19 Dec 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

At the Red Sea International Film Festival 2025 in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, Kriti Sanon delivered a standout fashion moment in an all-black sculpted gown that captivated global audiences at the Women in Cinema Gala. The Bollywood actor's look reaffirmed her reputation as a red-carpet style icon on an international stage.

Dramatic Details and Bold Silhouette

Sanon chose a dramatic black gown from Australian designer Toni Matijevski's collection, featuring a thigh-high slit, ruffle-accented details, and an asymmetrical, sculpted silhouette that combined elegance with contemporary edge. The design's bold structure and flowing elements created a balance of drama and sophistication that was perfect for the high-profile event.

She complemented the gown with minimal jewellery, sleek heels and smoky eye makeup, while her hairstyle maintained a chic finish—letting the gown remain the focal point of the ensemble.

Indian Presence on a Global Stage

Kriti's appearance added strong Indian representation at the prestigious film festival, where she was spotted mingling with international personalities and fellow celebrities. Alongside the gala evening look, she also showcased varied sartorial choices at other festival events, underlining her versatile fashion sensibility.

Her presence at the festival aligns with a broader moment of Indian cinema's growing influence on global platforms, both in terms of talent and style.
