

Janhvi Kapoor Champions Velvet Sarees as Winter's Most Elegant Statement

Published on 22 Dec 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood actor Janhvi Kapoor is once again turning heads in the fashion world, this time by redefining winter glamour with velvet sarees — a style moment that fashion critics and fans alike are calling the most elegant statement of the season.

At a recent event, Kapoor was photographed in a rich velvet saree, showcasing how the plush fabric can elevate traditional draping into a standout winter fashion statement. The luxurious texture and deep tones of velvet — ideal for colder months — brought both warmth and sophistication to her look, blending classic Indian silhouettes with contemporary elegance.

Her ensemble, widely shared across social media platforms, highlighted how velvet can transcend typical seasonal staples like silk and chiffon, positioning itself as a go-to for festive occasions, award nights, and evening celebrations this winter.

Kapoor's interpretation stays true to her signature style — effortlessly merging timeless charm with modern sensibilities — and has inspired many fashion lovers to embrace velvet sarees in their wardrobes this season.

With this look, Janhvi continues her streak of memorable saree moments in 2025, proving once again that traditional Indian wear can be both contemporary and striking in colder climates.
