

Tara Sutaria's Holiday Look Becomes a Festive Classic

Published on 22 Dec 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood actress Tara Sutaria has once again made a stylish statement this festive season, earning praise for her Gauri & Nainika holiday look that strikes the perfect balance between contemporary fashion and classic celebration style.

For a recent Christmas-themed occasion, Tara chose a Gauri & Nainika ensemble that felt both sophisticated and seasonally spirited — making her outfit feel like it was designed specifically for the modern holiday wardrobe. The ensemble featured a cropped floral bralette paired with a matching voluminous skirt, combining rich textures and an elegant silhouette that stood out in photos shared on social media.

The choice of floral motifs and structured tailoring echoed a fresh yet festive vibe, while the coordinated set showcased the designers' talent for modern silhouettes that still feel celebratory. Tara's styling — which played with shape and proportion — helped elevate the look from simply fashionable to holiday classic.

Her appearance in this outfit underscores how contemporary Indian celebrities are redefining seasonal dressing — embracing ensembles that are instinctively festive yet polished enough for year-round wear. Tara's look, in particular, has been widely shared and admired as an example of how high fashion can be accessible and memorable during holiday moments.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com