

World Saree Day 2025: Top Tamannaah Saree Looks

Published on 23 Dec 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

World Saree Day 2025 — observed annually on December 21 — once again highlighted the cultural, historical and aesthetic significance of the saree, a garment that has been a defining symbol of Indian fashion for centuries. This year's celebrations drew widespread attention across fashion, art and heritage communities as women and designers honoured the six-yard drape's enduring legacy and modern relevance.

Rooted in tradition yet fluid enough to evolve with contemporary style, the saree continues to transcend seasonal trends, embodying both heritage craftsmanship and innovative fashion expression.

Five Saree Looks from Birthday Girl Tamannaah Bhatia

In connection with World Saree Day, fashion editors and style platforms highlighted five standout saree looks worn by Bollywood star Tamannaah Bhatia, whose birthday falls close to the celebration and who has become synonymous with elegant drape styling.

1. Bold Black Statement: A sheer black saree with sequin detailing, paired with sleek hair and a bold lip — a dramatic evening look that blends glamour with tradition.
2. Royal Blue Silk: Rich silk with intricate gold zari work, complemented by statement jewellery — an embodiment of classic Indian chic.
3. Emerald & Sunshine Hues: Bright and bold choices like sunshine yellow and emerald green sarees, styled with minimal accessories yet striking confidence.
4. Ivory & Pastel Grace: Delicate pastel organza and ivory chiffon drapes paired with soft makeup and gentle curls — perfect for daytime elegance.
5. Festive Red: Timeless red Banarasi saree with temple jewellery — a cultural classic marked by regal charm and festive spirit.

Each look demonstrates how the saree can be adapted across occasions — from high fashion and red-carpet glamour to traditional and festive contexts.

Beyond Style:

World Saree Day also shined a spotlight on how the saree supports artisan communities and sustainable fashion narratives. From Banarasi brocades that date back centuries to lightweight Chanderi and Bandhani weaves recognised worldwide.
