

Madhuri Dixit Elevates Power Dressing with a Skirted Suit

Published on 30 Dec 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood fashion icon Madhuri Dixit Nene continues to captivate style enthusiasts with her fashion-forward looks. On December 29, 2025, the celebrated actor turned heads on social media by reimagining the classic pantsuit in her own style.

A Bold Twist on a Classic Look

In her latest stylistic update, Dixit abandoned the standard pantsuit silhouette in favour of a chocolate-brown blazer paired with a matching long skirt, creating a coordinated statement set that seamlessly blends classic tailoring with contemporary flair.

Rather than resting on timeless convention, this approach injects fresh life into a wardrobe staple — proving even the most familiar looks can evolve with thoughtful styling.

Styling & Accessories

The ensemble features a fitted blazer with sharp tailoring and a rich, monotone finish. Instead of traditional trousers, Dixit paired the blazer with a flowing skirt, maintaining the suit's integrity while offering a more fluid, feminine silhouette.

To bring added personality and visual interest, a playful leopard-print top peeks from beneath the blazer, adding a dynamic layer of contrast to the look. The actor complemented the outfit with golden earrings, statement rings, and black Chelsea boots, striking a balance between edgy sophistication and polished elegance. Her makeup, emphasising smoky eyes and a neutral brown lip, along with softly curled hair pinned back for a refined finish, lent a modern yet timeless grace to the overall look.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com