

Tarun Tahiliani Dresses Khushi Kapoor for Wedding Night Glamour

Published on 30 Dec 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Bollywood starlet Khushi Kapoor brought old-world charm and refined elegance to a recent wedding night appearance, choosing a meticulously crafted ensemble by veteran Indian designer Tarun Tahiliani. Her look, rooted in classic craftsmanship with a modern twist, reaffirmed her rising status as a fashion influencer in the world of contemporary Indian style.

A Bridal Look With Vintage Inspiration

For the occasion, Khushi opted for an intricate Tarun Tahiliani lehenga in muted ivory tones with subtle blush and gold undertones, evoking regal sophistication and a timeless mood. The couture creation stood out for its detailed embellishments and refined silhouette — a signature of Tahiliani's ability to merge Indian textile traditions with contemporary design sensibilities.

Her choice of palette and ornate accents drew on classic bridal aesthetics while maintaining a subdued elegance fit for evening festivities. The ensemble's muted colours and craftsmanship offered a modern interpretation of old-world grandeur.

Styling and Accessory Details

Complementing the outfit, Khushi styled her look with delicate jewellery and minimal yet impactful makeup, allowing the couture piece to remain the centrepiece of her appearance. While exact accessory details were shared in images by fashion outlets, the overall vibe carried a regal yet contemporary feel — balancing traditional Indian wedding grandeur with understated sophistication.

About Tarun Tahiliani

Legendary fashion designer Tarun Tahiliani is known for fusing Indian craftsmanship with modern silhouettes, particularly in bridalwear and couture that celebrate textile heritage with elegant engineering. His work often blends traditional embroidery and weaving techniques with tailored shapes that appeal to both contemporary and classic tastes.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com