

Mira Rajput Elevates All-Black Look with Timeless Chanel Bag

Published on 30 Dec 2025 | By IFI Correspondent

Fashion followers have been buzzing over Mira Rajput's latest style moment, where the celebrity entrepreneur turned a sleek all-black outfit into a standout look by pairing it with a timeless Chanel bag — a fusion of minimalist elegance and luxury craftsmanship that's inspiring year-end fashion diaries.

All-Black, All Class:

While in Dubai, Mira Rajput stepped out in a polished all-black ensemble featuring a halter neck, backless silhouette and tailored bell-bottom pants. The monochrome look was kept understated yet refined, allowing her accessories to take centre stage.

Opting for minimal makeup and open hair, she balanced relaxed glamour with effortless sophistication — a testament to how monochrome outfits remain a go-to for modern chic.

Luxurious Arm Candy

What elevated the outfit was the Chanel hobo bag she carried — a classic piece from the luxury French house known for its refined quilting and iconic CC logo. The accessory, estimated to cost around ₹5 lakh, reinforced how investment bags from heritage brands can instantly upscale even simple outfits.

Chanel's designs are celebrated for combining tradition with modern style, and this particular silhouette exemplifies how luxury handbags continue to anchor celebrity looks.

Style Breakdown:

Mira's choice of accessories stayed subtle — delicate earrings, a gold-plated watch and light makeup emphasized a less-is-more philosophy. This styling approach complements the sleek silhouette, proving minimalism and luxury can coexist beautifully on any fashion stage.

Her ensemble reflects a growing trend among fashion icons who prefer monochromatic palettes and standout accessories for a refined everyday luxe aesthetic.

For more style updates & exclusive fashion stories follow indiafashionicon.com