

Sreeleela's Yellow Lehenga & Corset: Haldi Style Inspiration

Published on 01 Jan 2026 | By IFI Correspondent

Tollywood and South Indian cinema star Sreeleela has once again delivered a festive fashion moment that's perfect for Indian wedding seasons. Her latest outfit — a vibrant yellow lehenga paired with a structured corset blouse — is being hailed as an ideal look for Haldi celebrations, blending traditional charm with modern styling nuances.

Bold Yellow Sets the Tone for Haldi

Yellow is a classic colour choice for Haldi ceremonies, symbolising joy, prosperity and the golden hues of turmeric used in the ritual. Fashion experts and wedding stylists have long recommended yellow ensembles as the go-to palette for Haldi outfits, offering flattering tones for all skin types and lighting up candid photos from the morning event.

In her latest ensemble, Sreeleela chose a rich yellow lehenga with booti (motif) detailing, complemented by a form-fitting corset top — an innovative twist on the traditional choli and blouse combination. The corset, while contemporary, maintains a festive cadence through its ornate stitching and silhouette.

Minimal Accessories, Maximum Impact

To let the vibrant outfit take centre stage, Sreeleela kept her accessories minimal and refined, opting for delicate jewellery pieces rather than heavy ornamentation. This styling choice aligns with current bridal and guest fashion trends that favour understated elegance at daytime ceremonies.

Beauty experts note that minimal accessories not only enhance comfort during longer daytime celebrations but also allow the outfit and wearer's natural glow to stand out in photographs — a crucial consideration for Haldi festivities that often begin early and last several hours.

Why The Look Resonates This Wedding Season

Sreeleela's fusion of traditional colour symbolism and modern tailoring embodies what many fashion-conscious attendees are seeking this wedding season: outfits that are both culturally rooted and fresh. The corset's structured lines offer a flattering silhouette, while the lehenga's festive yellow ties beautifully into classic Haldi themes.
